ROUNDALAB Convention 2008
June 22 - 25, 2008

Wichita, also known as the Air Capital of the World, is the largest city in Kansas; as well as a major aircraft manufacturing hub and cultural center. The city is home to six major aircraft companies and McConnell Air Force Base. Eleven commercial carriers fly into Wichita Mid-Continent Airport. The city is home to Botanica and The Wichita Gardens, which boast twenty-three themed gardens including the popular butterfly garden. Wichita was founded at the confluence of the Arkansas and Little Arkansas Rivers and some of the major attractions include Sedgewick County Zoo and the Old Cowtown Museum and Exploration Place - a science and discovery center for all ages.

- i Hospitality - The Hilton Wichita Airport is located approximately five miles from the center of Wichita. We are offering rooms for only $94 per night. A great price that can be extended through the NSDC and the hotel is conveniently located on the NSDC convention bus route.
- i Dining - We're in prairie country so steaks, corn on the cob and sunflower seeds are on the menu. We are offering the optional meal package of five meals for only $115 per person. We strongly encourage you to purchase this package. Mealtimes are a time to visit and network with old and new friends. Lots can be learned over lunch and dinner. The only restaurant available if you do not have wheels is the one located in the hotel.
- i Education - Our education program will again be three and one half days. The seminars and sessions will be based on your evaluations from 2007 convention.
- i Dancing - There will be a full program of dancing Sunday, Monday and Tuesday evenings and just as occurred this year you will be the featured cuer. Monday night will be the RED SHOE BALL so dig up your red shoes and sparkle them up. Dorothy will be there to choose the best pair!!

Don't forget to register for convention by November 30, 2007 to be entered into the drawing to win one convention registration in cash.
